

Cafe Connections

What is Cafe Connections?

A series of 8 group Cafe style get togethers for people who have a memory loss and their carers. We will discuss with you, how we can support you to attend and what you would like to achieve from attending.

Who can join?

You can come alone, although we encourage people to attend with a partner, family member or friend.

What happens at Cafe Connections?

The group will choose activities they can enjoy together. We can also provide you with information and introduce you to service providers in your area.

When is it?

The group will run over 8 sessions.

Thursdays.
