

Alphabet Crew

Social group for LGBTIQ+ young people,
friends and allies

We celebrate every letter!

Come join us!

The Alphabet Crew is a social group for young people of all genders and sexualities.

We meet every other Wednesday during NSW school term time, at Retro Lane Café, Albury.

All young people aged 12 - 18 are welcome!

Wayout Wodonga

The Alphabet Crew

Who's it for?

Our motto is “we celebrate every letter”.

The Alphabet Crew group welcomes young people of all genders and sexualities aged 12 — 18.

So whether you're L, G, B, T, I,Q, + or an ally, we want you!

What's it about?

It's a space where you can be yourself, meet people, and talk about the things that interest you.

There's info on sexuality and gender if you're interested, and we can organise guest speakers too.

We also have games nights and pizza sometimes 😊

Who runs it?

WayOut Wodonga and Retro Lane Café workers run the group, along with our fabulous youth volunteers.

How do I join?

We like to talk to, or meet with, everyone who's interested in joining. That's to make sure you are comfortable, know what to expect, and can ask any questions you might have.

So message, call or text us now! (details on the front of the flyer)
